Dear New Jersey United Nations Association Members and Friends,

United Nations Association mini-film festival and Networking Meeting

You are invited to join us on Tuesday, March 29, 2011 at Rutgers University, New Brunswick Campus, for a Mini-Film Festival and UNA Business Meeting. The focus is on films relevant to the United Nations and its vital peacekeeping activities. We will, in this, join with a seminar class of Prof Montague Kern, SC&I as we explore the increasing role of film to engage and inform in a conflict-ridden but interconnected world. Contact Prof. Kern at mlkern@rutgers.edu for more information. This Rutgers upper-level seminar number is 567:473:01.

Two documentary films, REPORTER [1:10 p.m] and THE PEACEKEEPERS [2:30 p.m] will be screened.

Both deal with the question of wars which involve huge human rights violations, in fact genocide, or the threat thereof, and the responsibility of the world, and the United Nations and other global organizations to protect civilians. Come, watch the films and join the discussion!

1:10 P.M.- REPORTER, with Nicholas Kristof of the N.Y. Times, Campbell Dorm (Room 1-A), George St., New Brunswick

2:30 p.m.- THE PEACEKEEPERS, 3rd Fl., School of Communication and Information, 4 Huntington St., New Brunswick

DISCUSSION: Wars today frequently break out in the poorest nations on earth. Does this film successfully suggest that developed nations, working with regional organizations, and the United Nations, should enhance their peace-keeping capacity to prevent civilian atrocities; and work toward developing stable democratic governing process?

4:30 p.m. - United Nations Association of the USA Meeting and Networking - School of Communication and Information, 4 Huntington St., New Brunswick

Please join us in support of the United Nations at Rutgers University.

A Meeting of the Central New Jersey Chapter of the United Nations Association of the USA will follow at 4:30 p.m. This meeting is open to all members of the Rutgers community and surrounding communities.

Roger Nokes, national Membership Coordinator at UNA-USA, will speak about the role of the United Nations Association in supporting and education about the United Nations, about starting a UNA-USA Student Alliance at Rutgers, and working in Central New Jersey to promote the work of the United Nations.

Light refreshments will be provided.

Hope you can attend!

Warm regards,

Ginger
